

Luxury wine gifts for Christmas: The best champagne, reds and whites

It's that time of the year where we need no excuse to crack open the 'good stuff' and this year I've found quite the loot for your tittle exploration. Christmas is all about sharing special moments with special people, and what better way to spread the love and cheer than with a glass of something incredible. Here are the top finds from Aidy Smith, an award-winning drinks expert, writer, and presenter of The Three Drinkers TV Series on Amazon Prime.

Red Wine

The perfect Christmas gift

Baldacci Family: Brenda's Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 2019

Only 362 cases of this Napa Valley delight were created, offering a glimpse into a smaller winery doing big things. Brenda's Vineyard was named after the Founder's Mother and gives a distinct mineral personality alongside those staple well-made Napa Cab notes. You can expect wild strawberry, ripe blackberry and blueberry jam alongside caramelised fig and spiced dates. A lively acidity and ripe tannins mean this wine will last for a long, long time!
