

WINE BUZZ

LIGHTER STEP

Led by second-generation winemaker Michael Baldacci, Baldacci Family Vineyards is best known for its single-vineyard Cabernet Sauvignons. But the winery, in Napa Valley's Stags Leap District, turns out other varieties, too, such as the non-vintage Pops sparkling rosé. Made from estate-grown Pinot Noir grapes, the dry bubbly tastes of green apple, plum, and toasted bread.
