

Best Things to Do in Napa Valley This June

By Dana Rebmann - June 1, 2024

June is a special time when Gay Pride Month, Father’s Day, Juneteenth, street festivals and country fairs fill the outdoor events calendar. We’ve done the deep research for you on the best things to do in Napa including museums, cultural events, food tours, golfing, hikes and more. Speaking of food, we also have an extensive list of our best restaurants in Napa, and if you’re planning a weekend, the the best places to stay.

Terrace Happy Hours at Baldacci Throughout Summer

Taste a variety of vintages poured by the glass from Baldacci Family Vineyards, located just outside Yountville. The winery hosts its happy hour throughout summer, offering a relaxing service from their outdoor terrace or the Estate House bar. Sparkling wine, pinot noir, chardonnay and much more — why not try them all? It’s only a glass (wink).

More info: baldaccivineyards.com